

October 13, 2019 am

Dr. Jay Robertson

“Remembering the God of Bethel” Genesis 31

I. The LORD Is Faithful to His Word (31:1-21)

- A. “It is not always that God gives us a manifestation of these three principles, but whenever they do combine and are evident we may be sure of his will in any given circumstance.” (AW Pink)
- B.
 - 1. “A definite conviction in our hearts that that God desires us to take a certain course or do a certain thing.” (AW Pink)
 - 2. “The path he would have us take is indicated by outward circumstances.” (AW Pink)
 - 3. “After waiting in God for direction, the Holy Spirit brings a Scripture to our attention that is plainly a message from God to our heart.” (AW Pink)
 - 4. “Do the will of God. The reason for defeat in so many Christians’ lives is not that they do not understand the will of God, but that they do not do what they understand.” (James Montgomery Boice)
- C. Genesis 28:13-15.
- D. 1 Thessalonians 5:24.

II. The LORD Preserves and Provides for His People (31:22-42)

- A. Jacob’s faithfulness (31:38-41)
- B. Laban’s dishonesty (31:41-42)
- C. Isaiah 41:10.
- D. Philippians 4:19.

III. The LORD Transforms His People (31:43-55)

- A. Mizpah Benediction

Conclusion

- A. Romans 8:28-32
- B. The Gospel Definition